GREAT THOUGHTS.

They Have the Gift of Immortal Youth and Strength,

The influence of the law of action and reaction can be traced more clearly in those everyday human affairs which come under our individual observation than in the greater more ments of mankind which are often imperfectly recorded. We not and are acted upon. The people we meet make an impression on us: the impression: may be for the moment or it may isst through life. Bloom, Iragrance, grace. harmony, besuty, majesty, affect us agreeably; deformity, imbeelilty, distress cruelty, effect us unpleasantly. The plea of the unfortunate, the thought of our visitor, the opinion in the newspaper, the issues of the time impress us in accordance with our mosds or untures. Certain words, tones, sights, awaken schoes within us of old happiness or pain,

There are words and tones which produce Describe reactions the Islin boxs of the mother, the enderrments of the lover, the come of sympathy, the economical of music, the message of the poets, the frummet calls to hosor and duty. And there are words which produce in sinderstanding, confisher eversion, singer the words of whining, completing, fault finding, of easy, jerimay slander of malice, in tolerance, bridging.

The response to the public speaker is recoprosal to his power. If he be date the lacrocy are wearied; if he be convineral, consequence forceful, the an dience will kindle, and he may rouse them to hughier or rears, to Indiguation or fury, to generosity or sacrifice He may change the opinions and con victions of some and the course of the Hves of others, be may even save : city from idaughter or make a state If his thought be really great; it may live through many ages, stirring gen eration after generation. The reaction of moral effort may be prolonged; it may even gala force with time, inflipendons primal course. The ectro of but the color of the words of Could cine and Buddha, of Plato, Senera and threat will lives. The voice of Sociates before his pulges kindles men whose sis setors were untassed savages when Secretes spoke. Buildings decay, more amousta full, rivers run dry; rares de cline, but a great thought suffers from us impairment or decrepitude; it has the gift of immortal youth and strongth From Balance: The Funda mental Verity," by Orlando J. Smith.

Why Same Folks Go to Europe.

When New York society doesn't know what else to do it goes sbroad. An on liftions, woman pets wind of some rival's intended function. Not to be invited or not to be seen among the grouts means a slight easily endured if the world be not cognizant of the fact, but infolerant if it is; therefore the ambitious woman sails away to weeks, but her absence is thus to be secounted for In other cases it is known that society takes this absent freatment to cure lies I frombles, to es cape social obligations that weigh too heavily on the income or, again, from where empti it departs. This restlessness of certain sets in society would. be dangerous were it not for the safety; valce which that really overworked Atlantic ocean has become of late years. When all else falls, go to Europe - Boston Hemili.

The Beautiful.

Beauty prevails in spite of all we do. We may build ngly buildings, we may think ugly thoughts, we may wrinkle ourselves in worries or the contemplation of ngliness, we may even worship ugliness under the name of utility, but lightly, without an effort, the gentle hand of beauty de-scenda upon all. Beauty may do her subtle work in many ways. Sun, moon, fog and rain are slike her servants. The fresh red houses, garish eyesores in the sun, become wonderful as they soom blood red before the man in the mist, or in a few years the red is quieted, and the searching light only makes it more beautiful.-Arthur Ran A Conversion.

A country circus advertised that "at 12 o'clock the cannibals will be fed." A large crowd assembled, but to everybody's disappointment the savages ate potators. In reply to some indignant questions the manager said: "But, gentlemen, don't you see that their diet is evidence of my skill? I have converted them into vegetarians."-File One Minute Cough Cure is the best gende Blatter.

The Seifish Man.

A bachelor one day set the table in his lonely abode with plates for him- $4.50 at self and an imaginary wife and five children. He then sat down to dine and as he helped himself to food he put the same quantity on each of the other plates and surveyed the prospect. at the same time computing the cost He is still a bachelor.

The tiame of Life.

Life is a queer game of blind man's buff, played in a mist on a mountain the and the players keep dropping over the precipiess. But nobody heeds because there are always plenty more, and the game goes on forever .- II. Rider Hagmant,

Good to Have and Bad to Lose. "A man, like a rusor, must have some temper to be any good at all." "Yes, temper is a good thing to have, but a very had thing to lose."-Philadelphia Press.

An impudent fellow may counterfelt modesty, but a modest man can never counterfeit impudence.-Geldsmith.
